

“Weather Alert Radios Save Lives” Contest Rules

- 1) Sponsor. The “Weather Alert Radios Save Lives” contest is sponsored by the Illinois Emergency Services Management Association (IESMA) and the Illinois Emergency Management Agency (IEMA)
- 2) Terms of Contest. Entries in the “Weather Alert Radios Save Lives” contest can be submitted from March 1, 2017, to March 31, 2017.
- 3) Eligibility Requirements. Employees, contractors and other individuals closely affiliated with IESMA or IEMA, as well as family members of these individuals, are not eligible to participate in the contest. The contest is open to Illinois residents age 18 or older. Only one entry per person is allowed.
- 4) Entry Requirements. To enter the drawing, participants must first read a narrative about weather alert radios and complete a five-question quiz. Upon completion of the quiz, participants will be asked to complete the online entry form by providing the following information: name, address, city, state, zip code, phone number and county. All fields must be completed to be entered into the drawing.
- 5) Prize. There will be a total of 100 winners selected statewide. Each winner will receive one weather alert radio.
- 6) Winner Selection. Entry forms will be grouped according to IEMA regions and a minimum of 10 winners will be selected randomly from each region. Only one winner per address will be selected.
- 7) Winner Notification. Winners of the weather alert radios will be notified within a reasonable time following the contest deadline. Arrangements will be made for prize pickup from an emergency management agency in the winner’s area.
- 8) Restrictions. By submitting their information, participants agree to the sponsors’ use of their name and city of residence in posting the results of the contest. The decision of the sponsors regarding eligibility and winner selection is final. The sponsors do not warrant the prizes and participants have no recourse against the sponsors in the event of equipment malfunction or for any other cause.